

FOP LEGAL DEFENSE PLAN

The Firm, located in Washington, D.C. specializes in representing local and federal law enforcement officers and supervisors accused of on duty misconduct in civil, administrative and criminal matters under the Fraternal Order of Police Legal Defense Plan. Typically, this practice involves representing officers or supervisors at Internal Affairs, a trial board, in court or before a prosecutor.

For this type of on duty misconduct, the Firm represents officers and supervisors under the Fraternal Order of Police Legal Defense Plan at no charge. The Firm offers free consultations to officers and supervisors that are members of the FOP Legal Defense Plan and will assist you in attempting to get insurance coverage for your legal defense.

If you are a member of the FOP Plan there is no charge for you in your legal defense prior to receiving a determination regarding FOP Legal Plan coverage. The Firm has a dedicated practice in representing officers and supervisors in the Metropolitan, Washington, D.C. area accused of misconduct under the FOP Legal Plan in the following areas:

- Trial Boards
- Proposed Discipline (Suspension/Removal)
- Federal District Court Civil/Criminal Actions
- District of Columbia Superior Court Civil/Criminal Actions
- Internal Affairs Interviews
- Merit Systems Protection Board
- Arbitration
- Mediation
- Garrity Interviews
- Grand Jury Proceedings
- Defense of Section 1983 Civil Rights Actions

The Firm looks forward to assisting you in your legal defense. As you are probably aware, the FOP Legal Defense Plan is currently administered by Hylant Group and Keenan and Associates, Inc. The Firm works with these groups to seek coverage for your on duty misconduct defense claim.

Please contact the Firm to schedule an appointment and for additional information at (202) 955-1100.